¹ Substituted by Act No. 10 of 1981, Section 2 with effect from 8.10.1981.

(2) The Government may, if it thinks fit, terminate the appointment of the Chairman or any member of the Planning Authority at any time.

(3) The Chairman or any member may resign his membership of the Planning Authority by giving notice in writing to the Government and on such resignation being accepted by the Government, he shall cease to be a member of the Planning Authority.

(4) Any vacancy so created shall be filled by fresh appointment by the Government.

14. Meetings of Planning Authorities: (1) Each Planning authority shall meet, at such times and places and shall, subject to the provisions of sub-sections (2) and (3), observe such procedure in regard to the transaction of business at its meetings as may be prescribed.

(2) The Chairman of the Planning Authority or in his absence, any member nominated by him in that behalf shall preside at a meeting of the Planning Authority.

(3) All questions at a meeting of the Planning Authority shall be decided by a majority of votes of the members present and voting and in the case of an equality of votes, the Chairman or in his absence the person presiding shall have and exercise a second or casting vote.

(4) Minutes shall be kept of the names of the members present and of the proceedings at each meeting in a book to be kept for this purpose which shall be signed at the next meeting by the person presiding at such meeting and shall be open to inspection by any member during office hours.

15. Temporary association of persons with the Planning Authority for particular purposes: (1) The Planning authority may associate with itself in such manner and for such purposes as may be prescribed by rules any person whose assistance or advice it may desire in performing any of its functions under this Act.

(2) Any person associated with it by the Planning Authority under sub-section (1) for any purpose shall have a right to take part in the discussions of the Planning Authority relevant to that purpose but shall not have a right to vote at a meeting and shall not be a member for any other purpose.

16. Staff of the Planning Authority: (1) Subject to such control and restrictions as may be specified in the rules made in this behalf, a Planning authority may appoint such number of officers and employees as may be necessary for the efficient performance of its functions and may determine their designations and grades.

(2) The officers and employees of the Planning Authority shall be entitled to receive such salaries and allowances, if any, as may be fixed by the Planning authority and shall be governed by such terms and conditions of service as may be determined by rules and regulations made in this behalf.

CHAPTER – IVPREPARATION OF LAND USE MAP AND REGISTER

17. Preparation of existing Land and Building Use Map and Register: As soon as may be, after its constitution, every Planning Authority shall, not later than six months after its constitution or within such further period not exceeding six months as the Government may allow, prepare a Present Land Use Map (hereinafter called the Map) and Present Land Register (hereinafter called the Register) in the form to be prescribed, indicating the present use of every piece of land in the planning area and the present use of every building therein.

18. Notice of the preparation of the Map and Register: (1) After the preparation of the Map and the Register, the Planning Authority shall publish a public notice of the preparation of the Map and Register and of the place or places where copies of the same may be inspected, inviting objections in writing from any person with respect to the Map and Register within thirty days of the publication of such notice.

(2) After the expiry of the period mentioned in sub-section (1), the Senior Town Planner shall, after allowing a reasonable opportunity of being heard to all the persons who have filed the objections, make a report to the Planning Authority.

(3) The Planning Authority shall consider the report of the Senior Town Planner and may make such modification in the Map or Register or both, as it considers proper, and adopt the Map and Register by a resolution within a period of three months from the last date allowed for the filing of the objections specified under sub-section (1).

(4) Within thirty days after the adoption of the Map and Register, the Planning Authority shall publish a public notice of the adoption of the Map and the Register and the place or places where the copies of the same may be inspected and shall submit copies of the Map and the Register to the Board and the Government.

(5) A copy of such public notice shall also be published in the Official Gazette. The publication of the public notice in the Official Gazette in respect of the Map and the Register shall be conclusive evidence that the Map and the Register have been duly prepared and adopted.

¹[(6) "Proceedings under this section and section 19 shall be deemed and have the same effect as proceedings under section 5A of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (Central Act 1 of 1894).]

19. Appeal to the Board: (1) Any person aggrieved by any decision of the Planning Authority may appeal to the Board within two months from the notification of adoption of the Map and Register by the Planning Authority.

(2) The Board may, after making such enquiries as it deems fit, pass orders on appeal.

(3) The orders of the Board on such appeal shall be final.

¹ Inserted by Act 15 of 1971, section 3, with effect from 15.7.1972.

20. The power of the Government in case of default of the Planning Authority to prepare the Map and Register: (1) Where by virtue of the foregoing provisions of this Chapter, a Map and a register are to be prepared then –

(a) if within the period prescribed or within such period which the Government has extended, no Map or Register has been prepared; or the Government may direct the Senior Town Planner to prepare the map and the Register.

(2) After preparation of the Map and the Register, the Senior Town Planner shall submit the same to the Board which shall forward the Map and Register to the Planning authority; and the Planning authority shall follow the procedures laid down in the Act as if the Map and Register were prepared by the Planning Authority itself.

(3) Any expenses incurred under this section in connection with the making of the Map and the Register with respect to the area of a Planning Authority shall be borne by the Planning Authority.

CHAPTER – VDEVELOPMENT PLANS

21. Interim Development Plans: (1) As soon as may be after the declaration of a planning area, the Planning Authority shall, not later than one year after such declaration or within such further period as the Government may, from time to time, extend but such extension being not exceeding two years, prepare and submit to the Board and the Government an Interim Development Plan for the Planning area or any of its parts.

The Interim Development Plan shall –

23. Power of the Government in case of default of Planning Authority to prepare Development Plan: (1) Where, by virtue of the foregoing provisions of this Act, a Development Plan is to be prepared –

(a) if within the period prescribed or within such period which the Government has extended no Development Plan has been prepared; or the Government may direct the Senior Town Planner to prepare the Development Plan.

(2) After preparation of the Development Plan, the Senior Town Planner shall submit the Development Plan to the Board and the Board shall forward the Development Plan to the Planning Authority who shall follow the procedure laid down in the Act as if the Development Plan was prepared by the Planning Authority itself.

(3) Any expenses incurred under this section in connection with the preparation of the Development Plan for the planning area of a Planning Authority shall be borne by the Planning Authority.

CHAPTER – VI

DETAILED DEVELOPMENT PLANS

24. Declaration of intention to make or adopt a Detailed Development Plan: A Planning Authority may, by resolution, decide –

(i) to prepare a Development Plan to be called Detailed Development Plan in respect of any land within the Planning Area;

(ii) to adopt with or without modification even a Detailed Development Plan proposed by Co-operative Societies or any of the owners of any such land.

25. Notification of Resolution to make or adopt Detailed Development Plan: The resolution under section 24 shall be published by the Planning Authority in the prescribed manner and such notification shall indicate the boundaries of the area of the Detailed Development Plan and specify the time and place where a plan of the area may be inspected.

26. Preparation and submission of the Detailed Development Plan: As soon as may be after a notification has been published under section 25 and not later than twenty-four months from the date of notification, the Planning Authority shall prepare in the manner prescribed and submit a Detailed Development Plan to the Board and the Government.

27. Preparation and submission of the Detailed Development Plan on direction by the Government: Notwithstanding anything contained in sections 24 and 26, the Government may, in respect of any land, after making such enquiry as they deem necessary, by notification in the Official Gazette require a Planning Authority to prepare and submit to the Board and to them a Detailed Development Plan.

28. Contents of Detailed Development Plan: (1) The Detailed Development Plan may be in the form of a Land Development Plan, a Re-development Plan, an Improvement Plan or a Deferred Development Plan or a combination of more than one such plan and may indicate, define and provide for all matters that have to be or may be indicated, defined and provided for in the Comprehensive Development Plan or the Interim Development Plan if such Plan has been prepared, and such other matters as the Planning Authority may consider necessary in the interest of the development of the area and in consistent with the objectives and purposes of this Act.

(2) Irrespective of whether an Interim Development Plan or a Comprehensive Development Plan has been prepared or not, a Detailed Development Plan, may indicate, define and provide for all or any of the following –

- (a) laying out or re-laying out of land either vacant or already built upon as building sites or for any of the purposes mentioned in this section;
- (b) construction, diversion, extension, alterations, improvement or closure of lanes, streets, roads and other communications;

- (n) imposition of conditions and restrictions in regard to the character, density, architectural features and heights of buildings, the buildings or control lines for roads, railway lines and power supply lines and the purposes to which buildings or specified area may or may not be appropriated; and provision and maintenance of open spaces in and around buildings;
- (o) advance to the owners of land or buildings comprised within the Development Plan upon such terms and conditions as may be provided by the plan, of the whole or part of the amount required for the erection of buildings or for the carrying out of the works, alterations or improvements in accordance with the Development Plan;
- (p) such other matters to be indicated, defined and provided for in the Comprehensive Development Plan under section 22 of this Act.

(3) Subject to the provisions of the rules made under this Act for regulating the form and contents of the Detailed Development Plan, any such plan shall include such maps and such descriptive matter as may be necessary to explain and illustrate the proposals in the Development Plan.

(4) Without prejudice to the generality of this provision, every Detailed Development Plan shall contain the following particulars –

- a) a plan showing the lines of existing and proposed streets;
- b) the ownership of all lands and buildings in the area covered by the plan;
- c) the area of all such lands, whether public or private;
- d) a full description of all details of the plan under the provisions of sub-section (1) or (2);
- e) particulars of all land either acquired already or to be acquired for the purposes mentioned under sub-section (1) or (2);
- f) in cases where the Detailed development Plan provides for any housing or re-housing, the particulars regarding the number and nature of houses to be provided by the Planning Authority, the approximate quantity of land to be acquired, the details of the land to be acquired and all matters supplemental, incidental or consequential to such housing or re-housing;
- g) zoning regulations and regulations for enforcing or carrying out the provisions of the plan.

29. Powers of Government in case of default of Planning Authority to prepare a Detailed Development Plan: (1) Where by virtue of the foregoing provisions of this Act, a Detailed Development Plan is to be prepared –

(a) if within the period prescribed a Detailed Development Plan has not been prepared;

(b) if at any time the Government is satisfied that the Planning Authority is not taking steps necessary to prepare the Detailed Development Plan within the period, the Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, direct the Senior Town Planner to prepare and submit to the Board a Detailed Development Plan within such period as the Government may prescribe.

(2) The Board shall on receipt of the Detailed Development Plan from the Senior Town Planner forward the same to the Planning Authority concerned.

(3) The Planning Authority shall on receipt of the Plan from the Board follow the further procedures laid down in the Act as if the Detailed Development Plan was prepared by the Planning Authority itself.

(4) Any expenses incurred under section in connection with the preparation of any such development plan for the Planning Area of a Planning Authority shall be paid by the Planning Authority.

CHAPTER – VIIPROCEDURE FOR APPROVAL AND PREPARATION OF DEVELOPMENT PLANS

30. Consent of the Government to the publication of notice of preparation of Development Plan: (1) As soon as may be after the Development Plan has been submitted to the Board and the Government, but not later than the time prescribed by the rules, the Government may direct the Planning Authority to make such modifications in the Development Plan as the Government thinks fit and there upon the Planning Authority shall make those modifications.

(2) The Government shall, after the modifications, if any, directed by it have been made, give its consent to the publication of a public notice under sub-section (1) of section 31 of the preparation of the development plan to the Planning Authority.

31. Public notice of the preparation of the Development Plan: (1) As soon as may be, after the Planning Authority has received the consent of the Government to the publication of the public notice, the Planning Authority shall publish a public notice in the Official Gazette and in a local newspaper, of the preparation of the Development Plan and place or places where copies of the same may be inspected, invite objections in writing from any person with respect to the Development Plan within such period as may be specified in the notice.

Provided that such period shall not be less than two months from the date the notice is published in the Official Gazette.

(2) After the expiry of the period mentioned in sub-section (1), the Planning Authority shall appoint a Committee consisting of the Senior Town Planner and not more than two of its other members to consider the objections filed under sub-section (1) and report on them within such time as the Planning Authority may fix in this behalf.

(3) The Committee so appointed shall have power to co-opt any other person. The provisions of section 15 shall apply to the persons co-opted, by the Committee.

(4) Such committee shall allow a reasonable opportunity on being heard to any person, including representatives of Government Departments or local authorities, who has filed any objection and who has made a request for being heard and submit a report to the Planning Authority on the case.

(5) As soon as may be after the receipt of the Report from the Committee, but not later than the time prescribed by the rules, the Planning Authority shall consider the report of the Committee and may make such amendments in the Development Plan as it considers proper, and shall submit the Development Plan with or without modification together with the report of the Committee to the Board and to the Government.

32. Approval by the Government: As soon as may be after the submission of the Development Plan, but not later than the time prescribed by the rules, the Government after consultation with the Board may, either approve the Development Plan or approve it with such modifications as it may consider necessary or return it to the Planning Authority to modify the Plan or to prepare a fresh plan in accordance with such directions as the Government may issue in this behalf.

33. Coming into operation of the Development Plan: (1) Immediately after the Development Plan has been approved by the Government, the Planning Authority shall publish a public notice in the Official Gazette and in a local newspaper of the approval of the Development Plan and place or places where copies of the same may be inspected.

(2) From the date of publication of the aforesaid notice in the Official Gazette, the Development Plan shall come into operation.

(3) (a) After the coming into operation of the Development Plan, any person aggrieved by it may make an application to the court within thirty days of the coming into operation of the said Plan questioning the validity of the same or any provisions contained therein on the following grounds –

(i) that it is not within the powers conferred by this Act, or

(ii) that any requirement of this Act, or any rules made thereunder have not been complied within relation to the making of the Development Plan.

(b) The court after allowing an opportunity of being heard to the Planning Authority, the Board and the Government –

(i) may, stay, until the final determination of the proceedings, the operation of any provisions contained therein so far as it affects any property of the applicant; and

(ii) if satisfied that the development plan or any provision contained therein is not within the powers of this Act, or that the interest of the applicant has been substantially prejudiced by a failure to comply with any requirement of the Act or rules, may quash the plan or any provision contained therein generally or in so far as it affects any property of the applicant.

(4) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (3); a Development Plan shall not, either before or after it has been approved, be questioned in any manner, in any legal proceedings whatsoever.

34. Amendment of Development Plans: (1) At any time after the date on which the Development Plan for an area comes into operation, the Planning authority may, and after every five years shall, carry out fresh surveys as it or the Board or the Government may consider necessary and shall review and submit to the Board and the Government any alteration or addition considered necessary to the Development Plan in operation.

(2) The provision of sub-section (2) of section 30 and sections 31, 32, and 33 with such modifications as may be necessary shall apply to such development plan.

35. Suspension of plan in emergency by the Government: If the Government is satisfied that a grave emergency exists which necessitates the suspension of any Development Plan or part of any Development Plan, it may, by a notification in the Official Gazette suspend the Development Plan or any part thereon.

CHAPTER – VIII

CONTROL OF DEVELOPMENT AND USE OF LAND

36. Use and Development of land to be in conformity with Development Plan: After the coming into operation of any Development Plan in any area, no person shall use or permit to be used any land or carry out any development in that area otherwise than in conformity with such Development Plan:

Provided that the Government may allow the continuance for a period not exceeding ten years of the use, upon such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by the regulations made in this behalf, of any land for the purpose and to the extent for and to which it is being used on the date on which such Development Plan came into operation.

37. Prohibition of development without payment of development charges and without permission: (1) After the Development Plan comes into force in any area and subject to the provisions relating to levy, assessment and recovery of development charges and other provisions of this Act, no development, institution or change of use, of any land shall be undertaken or carried out in that area –

(a) without obtaining a certificate from the Planning Authority certifying that the development charge as leviable under this Act has been paid or that no such development charge is leviable; and

(b) without obtaining the permission in writing as provided for hereinafter:

Provided that no such permission shall be, necessary –

(i) for the carrying out works for the maintenance, improvement or other alterations of any building being works which affect only the interior of the building, or which do not materially affect the external appearance of the building;

(ii) for the carrying out by the Central Government or the Government or any local authority of any works required for the maintenance or improvement of a highway, road or public street, being works carried out on land within the boundaries of such highway, road or public street;

(iii) for the carrying out by the Central Government or the Government or any local authority of any works for the purpose of inspecting, repairing or renewing any drains, sewers, mains, pipes, cables or other apparatus including the breaking open of any street or other land for that purpose;

(iv) for the excavations (including wells) made in the ordinary course of agricultural operations;

(v) for the construction of unmetalled road intended to give access to land solely for agricultural purposes;

(vi) for normal use of land which has been used temporarily for other purposes;

(vii) in case of land normally used for one purpose and occasionally used for any other purpose, for the use of land for that other purpose on occasions.

(2) (a) any person or body (including a department of Central Government or the Government or local authority) intending to carry out any development on any land shall make an application in writing to the Planning Authority for the permission in such form and containing such particulars and accompanied by such documents and plans as may be prescribed by the rules or the regulations:

Provided that in the case of a department of Central Government or the Government or local authority intending to carry out any development on any land the department or authority concerned, as the case may be, shall notify in writing to the Planning Authority of its intention to do so, giving full particulars thereof accompanied by such documents and plans as may be prescribed by the Government from time to time, at least one month prior to the undertaking of such development; where the Planning Authority has raised any objection in respect of the conformity of the proposed development either to any Development Plan under preparation, or to any of the building bye-laws in force at the time, or due to any other material consideration, under sub-section (4) the department or authority concerned, as the case may be shall-

(i) either make necessary modification in the proposals for development to meet the objections raised by the Planning Authority, or

(ii) submit the proposals for development together with the objections raised by the Planning Authority to the Government for decision.

(b) The Government on receipt of the proposals for development together with the objections of the Planning Authority shall, in consultation with the Senior Town Planner, either approve the proposals with or without modifications or direct the Department or authority concerned, as the case may be, to make such modifications in the proposals as they consider necessary in the circumstances.

(3) (a) The Planning authority shall, on receipt of the application refer it to the Town and Country Planning Department for advice and for assessment of the development charges as specified in this Act.

(b) On receipt of the advice of the Town and Country Planning Department and on payment of the development charges as assessed by that department, the Planning Authority shall pass orders -

(i) granting permission unconditionally; or

(ii) granting permission subject to such conditions as it may think fit; or

(iii) refusing permission.

(c) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (2), this sub-section shall not apply to any case of a department of the Central Government or the Government or local authority.

(d) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing clause, the Planning Authority may impose conditions to the effect that the permission granted is only for a limited period and after the expiry of that period, the land shall be restored to its previous conditions or the use of the land permitted shall be discontinued.

(4) The Planning Authority in dealing with the applications for permission shall have regard to –

(i) the provisions of the Development Plan and the building bye-laws and zoning regulations made under section 47;

(ii) the proposals or provisions which it thinks are likely to be made in any Development Plan under preparation or to be prepared; and

(iii) any other material consideration.

(5) When permission is granted subject to conditions or is refused, the grounds of imposing such conditions or such refusal shall be recorded in the order.

(6) Any such order shall be communicated to the applicant in the manner prescribed by the regulations.

(7) If the Town and country Planning Department is of the view that any order passed by the Planning Authority is contrary to the provision of the Act or any Development Plan or the building bye-laws or zoning regulations made under this Act, it may submit a report, to the Government containing the facts of the case. On receipt of the report, the Government may review, cancel or modify the orders of the Planning Authority.

38. Appeal against grant of permission subject to conditions or refusal of permission: (1) Any applicant aggrieved by an order passed under section 37 may appeal to the Board within one month of the communication of that order to him in the manner and accompanied by such fees as may be prescribed by the rules.

(2) The Board after receiving the appeal, may give a reasonable opportunity of being heard to the appellant and the Planning Authority and also call for any report, if necessary.

(3) After hearing the appellant and the Planning Authority or after considering the aforesaid report, the Board may pass an order dismissing the appeal or accepting the appeal by –

(i) granting permission unconditionally; or

(ii) granting permission subject to such conditions as it may think fit; and

(iii) removing or modifying the conditions subject to which permission has been granted and imposing other conditions, if any, as it may think fit.

(4) The Board may, by resolution, delegate any of its functions and powers under this section to the Senior Town Planner on such occasion and subject to such conditions, if any, as may be specified, therein.

39. Lapse of permission: Every permission for any development granted under this Act shall remain in force for three years only from the date of such permission:

Provided that the Planning Authority may, on application made in this behalf before the expiry of the aforesaid period, extend such period, for such time as it may think proper but such extended period shall in no case exceed three years:

Provided further that such lapse shall not bar any subsequent application for fresh permission under this Act.

40. Obligation to acquire on refusal of permission, or on grant of permission in certain cases: (1) Where any person interested in the land aggrieved by an order in appeal under section 38 refusing to grant permission to develop the land, or granting permission subject condition claims –

(a) that the land has become incapable of reasonably beneficial use in the existing state; or

(b) in a case where permission to develop the land was granted subject to conditions that the land cannot be rendered capable of reasonably beneficial use by carrying out the permitted development in accordance with these conditions, he may, within three months and in the manner prescribed by the rules, serve on the Government a notice (hereinafter referred to as an acquisition notice) requiring the Government to acquire his interest in the land.

(2) A copy of such notice shall, at the same time, be served on the Board and the Planning Authority.

(3) After receiving notice under sub-section (1), the Government shall appoint a person who shall give reasonable opportunity to the person interested serving the acquisition notice, the Planning Authority and the Board, to be heard and shall submit a report thereon to the Government; after receiving such report; the Government –

(a) if satisfied that the conditions specified in clause (a) or clause (b) of sub-section (1) are not fulfilled, shall pass an order refusing to confirm the notice;

(b) if satisfied that the conditions specified in clause (a) or clause (b) of sub-section (1) are fulfilled regarding the land or any part of the land, shall pass an order.

(i) confirming the notice; or

(ii) directing the Planning Authority to grant such permission to develop the land or grant the permission subject to such conditions as will keep the land capable of reasonably beneficial use:

Provided further that the Government shall not confirm the notice if the order appealed against was passed on the grounds of not complying with any provisions of this Act, rules or regulations that may be applicable.

(4) If within the period of one year from the date on which an acquisition notice is served under sub-section (1) the Government has not passed any order under sub-section (3), the notice shall be deemed to have been confirmed at the expiry of that period.

(5) Upon confirmation of the notice under sub-section (3) or (4), the Government shall proceed to acquire the land or that part of any land regarding which the notice has been confirmed within one year of the confirmation of the acquisition notice.

41. Compensation for refusal of permission or grant of permission subject to conditions in certain cases: (1) Where an order in appeal under section 38 refusing to grant permission, or granting permission subject to conditions, relates to any of the following developments–

(a) the re-erection of a building which has been destroyed or demolished so long as the cubic content of the original building is not exceeded by more than one-tenth;

(b) the enlargement, improvement or other alteration of any building which was in existence on the date a Development Plan relating to the area comes into operation for the first time, so long as the cubic content of the original building is not exceeded by more than one-tenth;

(c) the carrying out, on land used for the purposes of agriculture, of any building or other operation required for that purpose, other than operations for the erection, enlargement, improvement or alteration of a building for human habitation or of building used for the purpose of marketing of the produce of land ;

(d) Where any part of any building or other land which on the date of coming into operation for the first time of a Development Plan relating to the area, is used for a particular purpose, the use of that purpose of any additional part of the building or land not exceeding one-tenth of the cubic content of the part of the building or land used for that purpose on that day or as the case may be, one-tenth of the area of the land so used on that date, the owner may, within the time and in the manner prescribed by the rules made under this Act, claim upon the Planning Authority, if he has not served on acquisition notice or if the acquisition is not confirmed by the government under section 40, compensation for such refusal or for grant of permission subject to conditions:

Provided that no compensation shall be claimable if such refusal or grant of permission subject to conditions was based on any provision of any Development Plan.

(2) the compensation shall be equal to–

(a) where permission is refused, the difference between the value of the land as if the permission had been granted and the value of the land in its existing state;

(b) where permission is granted subject to conditions, the difference between the value of the land as if the permission had been granted unconditionally and the value of the land with the permission granted subject to conditions.

(3) When a claim is received by the Planning Authority, the Senior Town Planner shall, after giving an opportunity of being heard to the applicant, make a report to the Planning Authority.

(4) The Planning Authority shall, after considering the aforesaid report, assess the compensation and offer it to the owner.

(5) If the owner does not accept the compensation and gives notice, within such time as may be prescribed, of his refusal to accept, the Planning Authority shall refer the matter for the adjudication of the court and the decision of the court shall be final and be binding on the owner and the Planning Authority.

42. Power to revocation and modification of permission to develop: (1) If it appears to the Planning Authority that it is expedient having regard to the development plan prepared, under preparation or to be prepared and to any other material considerations, that any permission to develop land granted under this act or any other law should be revoked or modified, the Planning Authority may, by an order, revoke or modify the permission to such extent as appears to it be necessary :

Provided that-

(a) where the permission relates to the carrying out of building or other operations no such order --

(i) shall effect such operations as have been previously carried out;

(ii) shall be passed after these operations have been completed ;

(b) where permission relates to a change of use of land, no such order shall be passed at any time after the change has taken place.

(2) when permission is revoked or modified by an order made under sub-section (1), if the owner claims from the Planning Authority within the time and in the manner prescribed, compensation for the expenditure incurred in carrying out the works after the grant of permission and in accordance with such permission which has been rendered abortive by the revocation or modification, the Planning Authority shall, after giving the owner a reasonable opportunity of being heard by the Senior Town Planner's report, assess and offer such compensation to the owner as it thinks fit.

(3) If the owner does not accept the compensation and gives notice, within such time as may be prescribed of his refusal to accept, the Planning Authority shall refer the matter for the adjudication of the court and decision of the Court shall be final and be binding on the owner and the Planning Authority.

43. Penalty for unauthorized development or for use otherwise than in conformity with the Development plan: (1) Any person who, whether at his own instance or at the instance of any other person or anybody commences, undertakes or carries out development, institutes, or changes use of any land --

a) in contravention of any Development Plan;

b) without payment of development charges ;

c) without permission as required under this Act;

d) in contravention of any condition subject to which such permission has been granted ;

e) after the permission for development has been revoked under 42;

f) in contravention of the permission which has been modified under section 42;

g) in contravention of the provisions of sub-section (3) of section 47;

shall be punishable with a fine which may extend to ten thousand rupees and in the case of a continuing offence with a further fine which may extend to five hundred rupees for every day during which the offence continues after conviction for the first commission of the offence.

(2) Any person who continues to use or allows the use of any land or building in contravention of the provisions of a Development Plan without having been allowed under proviso to section 36 or where the continuance of such use has been allowed under that section, continues such use after that period for which the use has been allowed or without complying with the terms and conditions under which the continuance of such use is allowed, shall be punishable with a fine which may extend to five thousand rupees and in the case of a continuing offence with a further fine which may extend to five hundred rupees for every day during which such offence continues after conviction for the first commission of the offence.

44. Power to require removal of unauthorized development: (1) Where any development of land has been carried out as described in section 43, the Planning Authority may, within three years of such development, serve on the owner a notice requiring him, within such period, being not less than one month, as may be specified therein after the service of the notice, to take such steps as may be specified in the notice --

- (i) in cases specified in clause (a), (c) or (e) of sub-section (1) of section 43 to restore the land to its condition before the said development took place;
- (ii) in cases specified in clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 43 to restore the land to its condition before the said development took place or to pay the development charges and such penalty if any, as may be prescribed by the rules;
- (iii) in cases specified in clause (d) or (f) of sub-section (1) of section 43 to secure compliance with the conditions or with the permission as modified, and in particular any such notice may for the purpose aforesaid require ---

- a) the demolition or alteration of any building or works;
- b) the carrying out on land of any building or other operations; or
- c) the discontinuance of any use of land ;

Provided that in the case the notice requires the discontinuance of any use of land, the Planning Authority shall serve a notice on the occupier also.

(2) Any person aggrieved by such notice may, within the period and in the manner prescribed-

- (a) apply for permission under section 37 for the retention of the land or any building, work or for the continuance of any use of the land, to which the notice relates, or
- (b) appeal to the Board,

(3) (i) The notice shall be of no effect pending the final determination or withdrawal of the application or the appeal.

(ii) If such permission as aforesaid is granted on the application, the notice shall not take effect, or if such permission is granted for the retention only of some buildings or works or for the continuance of use of only a part of the land, the notice shall not take effect regarding such buildings or works or such part of the land but shall have full effect regarding other buildings or works or other parts of land.

(4) On an appeal made to the Board under sub-section (2), the Senior Town Planner or any other person appointed by him in this behalf after obtaining the remarks of the Planning Authority concerned and making such enquiries as may be deemed necessary submit a report to the Board.

(5) After considering the aforesaid report and hearing the appellant, the Board may dismiss the appeal or accept the appeal by quashing or varying the notice as it may think fit.

(6) If within the period specified in the notice or within such period as may be prescribed after the disposal or withdrawal of the application for permission or the appeal under the sub-section (2), the notice or so much of it as continues to have effect, or the notice with variation made in appeal, is not complied with, the Planning Authority may—

(a) prosecute the owner for not complying with the notice and in the case where the notice required the discontinuance of any use of land, any other person also who uses the land or causes or permits the land to be used in contravention of the notice, and

(b)(i) in the case of a notice requiring the demolition or alteration of any building or works or carrying out of any building or other operations, itself cause the restoration of the land to its condition before the development took place and secure the compliance with the conditions of the permission or with the permission as modified, by taking such steps as the Planning Authority may consider necessary including demolition or alteration of any building or works or carrying out of any building or other operations.

(ii) the Planning Authority may recover the cost of any expenses incurred by it in this behalf from the owner as arrears of land revenue.

(7) Any person prosecuted under sub-section (6) (a) shall be punishable with a fine which may extend to ten thousand rupees, and in the case of a continuing offence with a further fine which may extend to five hundred rupees for everyday during which such offence continues after conviction for the first commission of the offence.

45. Power to stop unauthorized development: (1) where any development of land as described in section 43 is being carried out but has not been completed, the Planning Authority may serve on the owner and the person carrying out the development a notice requiring the development of land to be discontinued from the time of the service of such notice.

(2) Where such notice has been served, the provisions of sub-section (2), (4) and (5) of section 44 shall apply with such modifications as may be necessary:

Provided that the provisions of sub-section (3) (i) of section 44 shall not apply and in spite of the filing of an application for permission for development or an appeal as provided in sub-section (2) of section 44 the notice shall continue to have full effect.

(3) Any person, who continues to carry out the development of land, whether himself or on behalf of the owner or any other person, after such notice has been served shall be punishable with a fine which may extend to ten thousand rupees and when the non-compliance is a continuing one, with a further fine which may extend to five hundred rupees for every day after the date of the service of the notice during which the non-compliance has continued or continues.

(4) If such notice is not complied forthwith, the Planning Authority or such officer of the Planning Authority who may be authorized in this behalf may require any police officer to remove such person and all assistants and workmen from the land at any time after the service of such notice and police officer shall comply with the requisition accordingly.

(5) After the requisition under sub-section (4) has been complied with, the Planning Authority or such officer of the Planning Authority who may be authorized in this behalf may, if he thinks fit, depute, by a written order, a police officer or employee of the Planning Authority to watch the land in order to ensure that the development is not continued.

(6) Where a police officer or an employee of the Planning Authority has been deputed under sub-section (5) to watch the land, the cost of such deputation shall be paid by the person at whose instance such development is being continued or to whom notice under sub-section (1) was given and shall be recoverable from such persons as arrears of land revenue.

46. Power to require removal of unauthorized development or use: (1) If it appears to a Planning Authority that it is expedient in the interest of the proper planning of its areas (including the interest of amenities) having regard to the Development Plan prepared, or under preparation, or to be prepared, and to any other material considerations --

- (a) that any use of land should be discontinued; or
- (b) that any conditions should be imposed on the continuance thereof; or
- (c) that any building or work should be altered or removed;

the Planning Authority may, by notice served on the owner--

- (i) require the discontinuance of that use, or
- (ii) impose such conditions, as may be specified in the notice on the continuance thereof, or
- (iii) require such steps, as may be specified in the notice to be taken for the alteration or removal of any buildings or work, as the case may be, within such period, being not less than one month, as may be specified therein, after the service of the notice.

(2) Any person aggrieved by such notice may, within the said period and in the manner prescribed, appeal to the Board.

(3) If an appeal is filed under the last foregoing sub-section, the provisions of clause (i) of sub-section (3) and sub-sections (4) and (5) of section 44 shall apply with such modifications as may be necessary.

(4) If any person –

(i) who has suffered damage in consequence of the compliance with the notice, by the depreciation of any interest in the land to which he is entitled or by being disturbed in his enjoyment of the land, or

(ii) who has carried out any works in compliance with the notice, claims from the Planning Authority within the time and in the manner prescribed, compensation in respect of that damage or of any expenses reasonably incurred by him for complying with the notice the provisions of sub-sections (3) to (5) of section 41 shall apply with such modifications as may be necessary.

(5) (a) If any person interested in the land in respect of which a notice is issued under this section claims that, by the reason of the compliance with the notice, the land will become incapable of reasonably beneficial use, he may within the period specified in the notice or within such period after the disposal of the appeal, if any, filed under sub-section (2) and in the manner prescribed, serve on the Government an acquisition notice requiring it to acquire his interests in the land.

(b) When a notice is served under the last foregoing sub-section, the provisions of sub-sections (2) to (4) of section 40 shall apply with such modifications as may be necessary.

47. Power to make Building Bye-laws and Zoning Regulations: (1) The Government, in consultation with the Town and Country Planning Department, may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make Building Bye-laws and Zoning Regulations to be applicable to such areas as may be specified in the notification to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such Bye-laws and Zoning Regulations may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:-

(i) the plot size, area to be covered, floor area ratio, height of the buildings, size of yards and building lines;

(ii) the use of zones such as residential, commercial, industrial, recreational, agricultural and other purposes;

(iii) any other matter which is to be or may be prescribed.

(3) No building operations shall be undertaken in a Planning Area contrary to the Building Bye-laws and Zoning Regulations made under sub-section (1) above without permission in writing from the Planning Authority.

CHAPTER--IX

ACQUISITION AND DISPOSAL OF LAND

48. Acquisition of land for purposes of Development Plan to be deemed for a public purpose: Land needed for purposes of Development Plan whether contemplated, notified or sanctioned shall be deemed to be land needed for a public purpose within the meaning of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (Central Act 1 of 1894).

49. Acquisition of land for Development Plan: The Planning Authority may, at any time, and for the purposes of a Development Plan acquire any land with the sanction of the Government.

50. Power of Government to acquire land included in the Development Plan: If, at any time, the Government is of opinion that any land included in the Development Plan is needed for a public purpose other than that for which it is included in the Development Plan, it may make a declaration to that effect in the Official Gazette in the manner provided in section 6 of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (Central Act 1 of 1894). The declaration so published shall, notwithstanding anything contained in the said Act, deemed to be declaration duly made under the said section.

(2) On the publication of a declaration under sub-section (1) the Government shall proceed to acquire the land and the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (Central Act 1 of 1894) as amended by section 51 of this Act, shall so far as may be apply to the acquisition of the said land.

(3) In the proceedings under the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (Central Act 1 of 1894), the Planning Authority shall be deemed to be a person interested in the land acquired and in determining the amount of compensation to be awarded to the Planning Authority, the Government or the court, as the case may be may take into consideration the value, if any, paid by the Planning Authority for the acquisition of the said land under section 48 or otherwise and proportionate cost of the development plan, if any, incurred by the Planning Authority and rendered abortive by reason of the variation of the Development Plan on account of such acquisition.

(4) On the land vesting in the Government under section 16 or section 17 of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (Central Act 1 of 1894), as the case may be, the Development Plan shall be deemed to have been suitably varied by reason of the acquisition of the land.

¹[51. Amendment of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 for the purposes of acquisition: Where any land is compulsorily acquired by the Planning Authority for the purposes of development under this Act, the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (Central Act 1 of 1894) shall apply subject to the modification specified in the schedule.

51A. Compensation for damage suffered in consequence of delay in making award: (1) Where the Collector has not made an award under section 11 of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (Central Act 1 of 1894), in respect of any land within a period of three years from the date of the publication of the declaration under section 6 of that Act or the issue of notification under section 33, as the case may be, the owner of the land shall, unless he has been responsible for the delay to a material extent, be entitled to receive compensation for the damage suffered by him in consequence of the delay.

(2) The provisions of Part-III of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (central Act 1 of 1894), shall apply, so far as may be, to the determination of the compensation payable under this section.]

52. Disposal of land: The immovable property acquired under section 49 for the execution of any Development Plan shall be disposed of to any person or body (including a department of the Government or the local authority or the Central Government) intending to carry out such development on such land in the manner prescribed by the rules.

CHAPTER-XLEVY, ASSESSMENT AND RECOVERY OF DEVELOPMENT CHARGE

53. Levy of Development charge: (1) Where permission for a change in the use or development of any land or building is granted under Chapter-VIII of this Act in the whole or any part of the planning area, and such change or development is capable of yielding a better income to the owner, the Planning Authority may levy a charge (hereinafter called the Development Charge) not exceeding one-third of the estimated increase in the value of the land or building in the prescribed manner for permitting such change in use or development.

(2) The Development Charge shall be leviable on any person who undertakes or carries out and such development or institutes or changes any such use.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), no Development Charge shall be levied on development or institution, of, or change of use of any land vested in or under the control or possession of the Central Government or the Government.

(4) The Government may, by rules, provide for the exemption from the levy of Development Charge any development or institution or change of any use of land specified in the rules.

(5) The Development Charge shall not exceed the limit prescribed under the rules from time to time.

54. Assessment of development charge: (1) Any person who intends to carry out any development or change any use of any land or building for which permission under the provision of Chapter-VIII of this Act is necessary, whether he has applied for such permission or not or who has commenced carrying out any such development or has carried out such development or instituted or changed any such use shall apply to the Planning Authority in the manner prescribed for the assessment of Development Charge payable in respect thereof.

(2) The Planning Authority shall, on such application being made or if no such application is made after serving a notice on the person liable for Development Charge, refer it to the Senior Town Planner for a report.

(3) The Senior Town Planner shall, after making such enquiries as he may deem necessary and after giving a reasonable opportunity of being heard to the person who made an application under sub-section (1), make a report to the Planning Authority.

(4) After taking into consideration the aforesaid report, the Planning Authority shall assess the Development Charge by an order:

Provided that-

- (a) where permission under Chapter-VIII of this Act has not been granted for carrying out the said development, the Planning Authority may postpone the assessment of the development charge;

- (b) where the application relates to the carrying out of any development, the Planning Authority may refuse to assess the Development Charge payable in respect thereof unless it is satisfied that the applicant has an interest in the land or building sufficient to enable him to carry out such development or that the applicant is able to obtain such interest and the applicant will carry out the development within such period as the Planning Authority considers appropriate;
- (c) where the application relates to the institution or change of any use, the Planning Authority may refuse to assess the amount of Development Charge in respect thereof unless it is satisfied that the use will be instituted within such period as it considers appropriate.

(5) The Planning Authority shall deliver or serve a copy of such order on the applicant or the person liable for the Development Charge

(6) Such order of assessment subject to provisions of section 55 shall be final and shall not be questioned in any Court.

55. Appeals against assessment: (1) If any person liable for such Development Charge is dissatisfied with the order of assessment, he may, within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed, appeal to the Board.

(2) On an appeal made to the Board under sub-section (1), the Board shall pass such order as it deems fit.

56. Development Charge to be a charge on land to be recovered as an arrear of land revenue: (1) If any development of land is commenced or carried out or any use is instituted or changed without payment of the amount of the Development Charge assessed under the provisions of this Chapter, the amount of Development Charge shall, subject to prior payment of land revenue, if any, be a first charge upon the interest of the person so liable in the land on which development has been commenced or carried out or use has been instituted or changed and also in any other land in which such person has any interest.

(2) The Development Charge or any amount due and recoverable under this Act shall be recoverable as arrears of land revenue.

CHAPTER-XI
FINANCE, ACCOUNTS AND AUDIT

2. After section 17 of the said Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:-

“17A. Transfer of land to Planning Authority.-

In every case referred to in section 16 or in section 17, the Collector shall, upon payment of the cost of the acquisition, make over charge of the land to the Planning Authority constituted under section 11 of the Pondicherry Town and Country Planning Act, 1969; and the land shall thereupon vest in the said Authority subject to the liability to pay any further cost which may be incurred on account of its acquisition”.

3. In the said Act, sections 23 and 24, the following sections shall respectively be substituted namely:-

“23. Matters to be considered in determining compensating.-

(1) In determining the amount of compensation to be awarded for the land or any interest therein acquired under this Act, the Court shall take into consideration-first, the market value of the land as on the date of the declaration of the area as a planning area under section 8 of the Pondicherry Town and Country Planning Act, 1969;

secondly, the damage sustained by the person interested by reason of the taking of any standing crops or trees which may be on the land at the time when the possession was taken from him;

thirdly, the damage, if any, sustained by the person interested at the time of the possession being taken from him, by reason of severing such land from his other land;

fourthly, the damage, if any, sustained by the person interested at the time of the possession being taken from him of the land, by reason of the acquisition injuriously affecting his other property, movable or immovable, in any other manner or his earnings; and fifthly, if in consequence of the acquisition of the land the person interested is compelled to change his residence or place of business the reasonable expenses, if any, incidental to such change.

¹ Schedule inserted by Act 15 of 1971, Section 6, with effect from 15.7.1972.

(2) In addition to the market value of the land as provided in sub-section (1), the court shall in every case award a sum of fifteen per centum on such market value, in consideration of the compulsory nature of the acquisition.

24. Matters to be neglected in determining compensation:-

The court shall not take into consideration-first, the degree of urgency which led to the acquisition;

secondly, any disinclination of the person interested to part with the land acquired;

thirdly, any damage sustained by him which, if caused by a private person would not render such person liable to a suit;

fourthly, any damage which is likely to be caused to the land acquired, after the date of publication of the notice under section 33 of the Pondicherry Town and Country Planning Act, 1969 by or in consequence of the use to which it will be put;

fifthly, any increase to the value of the land acquired likely to accrue from the use to which it will be put when acquired;

sixthly, any increase to the value of the other land of the person interested likely to accrue from the use to which the land acquired will be put;

seventhly, any outlay or improvements on, or disposal of the land acquired, commenced made or effected with the sanction of the local authority after the date of the declaration of the area as a planning area under section 8 of the Pondicherry Town and Country Planning Act, 1969;

eighthly, the special suitability of the land for any purpose if that purpose to which it could be applied in pursuance of any law or for which there is no market apart from the special needs of the local authority;

ninthly, any increase in the value of the land by reason of the use thereof or any premises thereon in a manner which could be restrained by any court, or is contrary to law or is detrimental to the health of the inmates of the premises or to the public health".]
