[G.O. Ms. No. 60/74-UD, dated 18th April 1974]

NOTIFICATION

G.S.R. No. 7. — In exercise of the powers conferred by section 81 of the Pondicherry Town and Country Planning Act, 1969 (No. 13 of 1970), the Lieutenant-Governor, Pondicherry hereby makes the following Rules, namely:—

THE PONDICHERRY TOWN AND COUNTRY
PLANNING RULES, 1974.

CHAPTER I

PRELIMINARY

1. Title.— These rules may be called the Pondicherry Town and Country Planning Rules, 1974.
2. Definitions.— (i) "Act" means the Pondicherry Town and Country Planning Act, 1969;

(ii) "Board" means the Town and Country Planning Board constituted under the Act;

(iii) "section" means section of the Act;

(iv) "Form" means a form appended to this rule.

CHAPTER II

THE BOARD, ITS CONSTITUTION, FUNCTION AND POWERS

3. Constitution of the Board. — (1) The Board shall be constituted as provided in section 3 of the Act.

(2) In the case of a member nominated under sub-section (3) of section 3 to represent a commune shall cease to be a member of the Board if he ceases to be a member of the commune which he represents.

4. Qualification and disqualification for membership. — (1) A member of the Board other than those who are appointed by virtue of their office shall possess one or more of the following qualifications, namely: —

- (a) he must have been associated with town planning work for not less than one year in municipalities;
- (b) he must be a qualified Town Planner or Architect or Engineer;
- (c) he must be a person who is taking part in town planning work;
- (d) he must be a person who is an Economist, Geographerist or Sociologist.

(2) A person shall be disqualified for being a member of the Board, —

- (a) if he holds any office of profit under the Board; or
- (b) if he is of an unsound mind and stands so declared by a competent Court; or
- (c) if he is an undischarged insolvent; or

(d) if he has been sentenced by a Criminal Court to imprisonment for an offence which involves moral turpitude and he is punishable with imprisonment for a term exceeding 6 months; or

(e) if he has been removed from the Board under rule 5.

5. Removal of members. — (1) The Government either suo moto or on a resolution passed by the Board by a majority of not less than two-third of the members of the Board recommending the removal of any member of the Board may, after such enquiry as it deems necessary, remove such member if he has been guilty of misconduct in the discharge of his duties or of any disgraceful conduct or has been incapable of performing his duties as a member:

Provided that no order of removal shall be made unless the member concerned has been given a reasonable opportunity to show cause against the action proposed to be taken.

(2) A member other than an ex-officio member shall be disqualified for being a member and shall be removed from membership if he absents himself from the meeting of the Board for three consecutive meetings except with the leave of the Board:

Provided that no such leave shall be granted in case of absence from the meetings of the Board during a period not exceeding six consecutive months.

6. Resignation. — A member other than an ex-officio member may resign his membership by giving a notice to that effect to the Chairman and such resignation shall take effect from the date of receipt of notice.

7. Casual vacancies. — Where a vacancy occurs in the office of a member by reason of resignation, disqualification, death, removal or otherwise prior to the expiry of his term of office, the vacancy shall be filled as soon as may be after the occurrence of such vacancy by nomination:

Provided that the member so nominated shall held office so long only as the member in whose place he is nominated would have held office if the vacancy had not occurred.

8. Meeting of the Board.— (1) The Board shall ordinarily hold at least one meeting in every six months for the transaction of business, and also at other times as often as a meeting may be convened by the Chairman.

(2) Any meeting may be adjourned until the next or any subsequent date, and an adjourned meeting may be further adjourned in like manner.

9. Notice of meetings and business.— Fifteen clear days' notice of an ordinary meeting, and seven clear days' notice of a special meeting, specifying the time and place at which such meeting is to be held and the business to be transacted thereat, shall be given to the members and pasted up at the Board Office.

10. Quorum.— No business shall be transacted at any meeting unless at least five members are present from the beginning to the end of such meeting. If at any meeting quorum is not present, the presiding authority shall, after waiting for thirty minutes, adjourn the meeting to such hour on the following or some other future day as he may reasonably fix and a notice of such adjournment shall be affixed to the notice board of the office of the Board, and the business which should have been brought before the original meeting had there been a quorum thereat shall be brought before the adjourned meeting and may be disposed of at such meeting.

11. Members not to vote on matter in which they are interested.— (1) No member of the Board shall vote or take part in the discussions on any questions coming up for consideration at the meeting of the Board if the question is one in which, apart from its general application to the public he has any direct or indirect pecuniary interest for himself or his relatives.

(2) If the presiding authority is believed by any member present at the meeting to have any such pecuniary interest in any matter under discussion, and if a motion to that effect be carried, he shall not preside at the meeting during such discussions, or vote on or take part in it. Any other member may be chosen or elected to preside at the meeting during the continuance of such meeting.

12. Adjournment of meetings.— Any ordinary meeting may, with the consent of a majority of the members present, be adjourned from time to time to a later hour on the same day or to any other day; but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than that left undisposed of at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. A notice of such adjournment shall be pasted in the office of the Board and shall be deemed sufficient notice of the adjourned meeting.

13. Motions and amendments.— (1) Every motion or any amendment thereof shall be in writing.

(2) Any motion or amendment may be withdrawn by the proposer with the consent of the Board.

14. Conduct of ordinary meetings.— (1) At an ordinary meeting, business shall be conducted in the following order:—

(a) the minutes of the previous ordinary meeting and of any special meeting held since shall be read and confirmed;

(b) business postponed at the previous meeting shall be considered;

(c) subjects included in the Agenda shall then be considered.

(2) A member may propose any resolution connected with or incidental to the subjects included in the list of business:

Provided that the Chairman may propose any subject relating to a matter of urgency not included in the list of business.

(3) All points of order shall be decided by the presiding authority with or without discussions as he may deem fit and his decision shall be final.

(4) Any question of procedure not provided for, in these rules shall be decided by a majority of the members present and voting.

15. Appointment of Officers and other staff.— (1) Subject to the general or special orders of the Government the Board may employ such officers and servants as may be necessary for the discharge of its duties.

(2) The terms and conditions of service of officers and servants of the Board shall be those applicable to the corresponding categories of officers and servants in the Department of Town and Country Planning.

16. Functions of the Board.— (1) Subject to the provisions of the Act and the Rules, the functions of the Board shall be as are entrusted to it under section 5, to advise and assist the local planning authorities and the Government in matters relating to planning, development and use of rural and urban lands in the Union territory.

the purpose of these rules, be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of votes recorded in favour of, or against such resolution.

(2) If voting as aforesaid is demanded, the votes of all the members present who desire to vote shall be taken under the direction of the Chairman, the Vice-Chairman or any member presiding over such meeting and the result of the voting shall be deemed to be the resolution of the Planning Authority at such meeting.

27. Business to be transacted at meetings and order of business how to be settled.— Save as provided in the proviso to sub-rule (2) of Rule 32, no business shall be transacted and no proposition shall be discussed at any meeting unless it has been mentioned in the notice convening such meeting.

28. Members not to vote on matters in which they are interested.— (4) No member of the Planning Authority shall vote or take part in the discussions on any question coming up for consideration at the meeting of the Planning Authority if the question is one in which, apart from its general application to the public, he has any direct or indirect pecuniary interest for himself or his relatives.

(2) If the presiding authority is believed by any member present at the meeting to have any such pecuniary interest in any matter under discussion, and if a motion to that effect be carried, he shall not preside at the meeting during such discussion, or vote on or take part in it. Any other member may be chosen or elected to preside at the meeting during the continuance of such meeting.

(3) The Chairman or the presiding authority may prohibit any member from voting or taking part in the discussions on any subject matter in the notice in which the member is believed to have such interest or he may require the member to absent himself during the discussions and abstain from voting.

29. Adjournment of meetings.— An ordinary meeting may, with the consent of a majority of the members present, be adjourned from time to time to a later hour on the same day or to any other day; but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than that left undischarged at the meeting from which the adjournment takes place. A notice of such adjournment pasted in the office of the Planning Authority shall be deemed sufficient notice of the adjourned meeting.

30. Modification and cancellation of resolutions.— No resolution of the Planning Authority shall be modified or cancelled within three months after the passing thereof, except at a meeting of the Planning Authority specially convened therefor and by a resolution of the Planning Authority supported by six members

31. Motions and amendments.— (1) Every motion or any amendment thereof shall be received in writing and then duly moved.

(2) Any motion or amendment may be withdrawn by its proposer with the consent of the Planning Authority.

32. Conduct of ordinary meetings.— (1) At an ordinary meeting business shall be conducted in the following order:—

(a) the minutes of the previous ordinary meeting and any special meeting held since shall be read and confirmed;

(b) business postponed at the previous meeting shall be considered;

(c) subjects included in the agenda shall then be considered

(2) A member may propose any resolution connected with or incidental to the subjects included in the agenda:

Provided that the Chairman may propose any subject relating to a routine matter of urgency not included in the list of business, if no member objects to it.

(3) All points of order shall be decided by the presiding authority with or without discussion as he may deem fit and his decision shall be final.

(4) Any question of procedure not provided for, in these rules shall be decided by a majority of the members present and voting.

33. Functions of the Planning Authority.— Subject to the provisions of the Act, the powers and functions of Planning Authority shall be—

(i) to prepare in respect of the Planning area:

(a) an existing land use map and land use register;

(b) at any such other places as may be specified by Planning Authority.

(2) The Planning Authority shall also publish the notice in Form II in the official Gazette and in one or more newspapers.

42. Comprehensive Development Plan to supersede the Interim Development Plan.—On the publication of the Comprehensive Development Plan and the report as finally approved by the Government under section 33 (1) such Comprehensive Development Plan and the report shall have effect and shall govern all changes in the land use and development of the area under the jurisdiction of the Planning Authority and the Interim Development Plan and regulations published shall be deemed to be superseded :

Provided that, if on the date on which the Comprehensive Development Plan takes effect a provision of the Interim Development Plan is being enforced against any property or plot of land such enforcement shall continue as regards the conditions of notice for enforcing the said provision, subject, however, to the condition that such conditions may be modified without prejudice to the time stipulated in the original notice, if such modifications are required to make the development to conform to the Comprehensive Development Plan.

43. Application for permission for development or change of use.—Application for permission for development or change in use of land shall be made in Form III with the particulars, documents and plans referred in the said form so as to accompany the application.

DETAILED DEVELOPMENT PLAN

44. Form and contents of Detailed Development Plan.—The Detailed Development Plan shall contain the following particulars namely—

- (a) Plan showing the lines of existing and proposed roads ;
- (b) the area, ownership and tenure of each original plot covered under the plan ;
- (c) the land allotted or reserved under section 28 (2) (k) with a general indication of uses to which the land has to be put and the terms and conditions subject to which such land is put to such uses ;
- (d) the extent to which it is proposed to alter or redistribute the boundaries of the lands or reconstitution of plots of sites covered in the plan ;
- (e) the estimate and net cost of the plan ;
- (f) a full description of all the details of the plan and particulars of all lands for purposes under section 28 (1) and (2) as may be applicable ;
- (g) the laying out or re-laying out of land either vacant or already built upon ;
- (h) the filling up or reclamation of low-lying swamp or unhealthy areas, or levelling up of land ; and
- (i) Zoning regulations and regulations for enforcing or carrying out the provisions of the Detailed Development Plan.

45. Reconstituted plot.—(1) In the Detailed Development Plan the size and shape of every reconstituted plot shall be determined so far as may be, to render it suitable for building purposes and where the plot is already built upon, to ensure that the building as far as possible complies with the provisions of the Detailed Development Plan as regards open spaces.

(2) For the purposes of sub-rule (1) the Detailed Development Plan may contain proposals—

- (a) to form a reconstituted plot by the alteration of the boundaries of an original plot ;
- (b) to form a reconstituted plot by the transfer, wholly or partly, of the adjoining lands ;
- (c) to provide with the consent of the owners that two or more original plots each of which is held in ownership in severality or in joint ownership shall hereafter with, or without alteration of boundaries, be held in ownership in common as reconstituted plot ;
- (d) to allot a plot to any owner dispossessed of the land in furtherance of Detailed Development Plan ; and
- (e) to transfer the ownership of a plot from one person to another.

45. Restrictions after declaration to make a Detailed Development Plan.—(1) On or after the date on which the Planning Authority declares its intention to make a Detailed Development Plan under section 24 or if the notification issued by Government under section 27 is published,—

- (a) no person shall within the area included in the Detailed Development Plan erect or proceed with any building work or remove, pull down, alter, make additions to or make any substantial repairs to any building, part of a building, a compound wall or any drainage work or remove any earth, stone or material, or sub divide any land or change the use of any land or building unless such person has applied for and obtained necessary permission which shall be contained in a commencement certificate granted by the Planning Authority in the form XII prescribed;
- (b) the Planning Authority on receipt of such application shall at once furnish the applicant with a written acknowledgement of its receipt and may, after enquiry and in consultation with the Senior Town Planner either grant or refuse such certificate or grant it subject to such conditions as the Planning Authority may, with the previous approval of the Senior Town Planner, think fit to impose if the Planning Authority communicates no decision to the applicant within three months from the date of such acknowledgement, the applicant shall be deemed to have been granted such certificate ;

(c) if any person contravenes the provisions, contained in clause (a) or clause (b), the Planning Authority may direct such person by notice in writing to stop any work in progress, and after making inquiry in the prescribed manner, remove, pull down, or alter any building or other work or restore the land in respect of which such contravention is made to its original condition ;

(d) any expenses incurred by the Planning Authority under clause (c) shall be a sum due to such authority under this Act from the person in default or the owner of the plot ;

(2) No person shall be entitled to compensation in respect of any damage, loss or injury resulting from any action taken by the Planning Authority under sub-rule (1) except in respect of a building or work begun or a contract entered into before the date on which the Planning Authority published a declaration of intention to make a scheme under section 24 or the Government published a notification under section 27 and only in so far as such building or work has proceeded at the time of publication of such declaration or notification.

47. Effect of Detailed Development Plan.—(1) On the day on which the Detailed Development Plan comes into force—

(a) all lands required by the Planning Authority shall, unless it is otherwise determined in such plan, vest absolutely in the Planning Authority free from all encumbrances ;

(b) all rights in the original plots which have been reconstituted shall determine and the reconstituted plots shall become subject to the rights settled by the Planning Authority.

(2) On or after the day on which the Detailed Development Plan comes into force any person continuing to occupy any land which he is not entitled to occupy under the Detailed Development Plan, may, in accordance with the prescribed procedure be summarily evicted by the Planning Authority.

48. Power to enforce Detailed Development Plan.—(1) On or after the day on which the Detailed Development Plan comes into force the Planning Authority, may, after giving the prescribed notice and in accordance with the provisions of the plan :

(a) remove, pull down or alter any building or other work in the area included in the Detailed Development Plan, which is such as to contravene the plan or in the erection or carrying out of which, any provision of the plan has not been complied with ;

(b) execute any work which it is the duty of any person to execute under the plan in any case where it appears to the Planning Authority that delay in the execution of the work would prejudice the efficient operation of the plan.

(2) Any expenses incurred by Planning Authority under this rule may be recovered from the persons in default or from the owner of the plot in the manner provided for the recovery of sums due to the Planning Authority under the provisions of this Act.

(3) If any question arises as to whether any building of work contravenes a Detailed Development Plan or whether any provision of a Detailed Development Plan is not complied with in the erection of any such building or the carrying out of any such building or work, it shall be referred to the Government or the Senior Town Planner if authorised by the Government in this behalf, and the decision of the Government or the Senior Town Planner as the case may be, shall be final and conclusive and binding on all persons.

49. Power to vary Detailed Development Plan on ground of error, irregularity or informality.—(1) If after the Detailed Development Plan has come into force, the Planning Authority considers that the plan is defective on account of an error, irregularity or informality, the Planning Authority may apply in writing to the Government through the Senior Town Planner for the variation of the plan.

(2) If on receiving such application or otherwise, the Government is satisfied that the variation required is not substantial, the Government shall publish a draft of such variation in the prescribed manner.

(3) The draft variation published under sub-rule (2) shall state every amendment proposed, to be made in the plan and if any such amendment relates to a matter specified in any of the clause (a) to (p) of section 28 (2) the draft variation shall also contain such other particulars as may be prescribed.

(4) The draft variation shall be open to the inspection of the public at the office of the Planning Authority.

(5) Within one month of the date of publication of the draft variation, any person affected thereby may communicate in writing his objections to such variation to the Government through the Senior Town Planner and send a copy thereof to the Planning Authority.

(6) After receiving the objections under sub-rule (5) the Government may, after consulting the Senior Town Planner and the Planning Authority and after making such inquiry as it may think fit, by notification, approve the variation with or without modification or refuse to make the variation.

(7) From the date of the notification making the variation, with or without modifications, such variation shall take effect as if it were incorporated in the plan.

50. Cost of Detailed Development Plan.—(1) The costs of a Detailed Development Plan shall include—

- (a) all sums payable by the Planning Authority under the provisions of this Act, which are not specifically excluded from the costs of the plan ;
- (b) all sums spent or estimated to be spent by the Planning Authority in the making and in the execution of the plan ;
- (c) all sums payable as compensation for land reserved or designated for any public purpose or purpose of the Planning Authority, which is solely beneficial to the owners or residents within the area of the plan ;
- (d) such portion of the sums payable as compensation for and reserved or designated for any public purpose or purpose of the Planning Authority which is beneficial partly to the owners or residents within the area of the plan and partly to the general public, as is attributable to the benefit accruing to the owners or residents within the area of the plan from such reservation or designation ;
- (e) all legal expenses incurred by the Planning Authority in the making and in the execution of the plan ;
- (f) any amount by which the total of the values of the original plots exceeds the total of the values of the plots included in the Detailed Development Plan, each of such plots being estimated at its market value on the date of the declaration of intention to make a plan with all the buildings and works thereon on that date and without reference to improvements contemplated in the plan other than improvements due to the alteration of its boundaries.

(2) If in any case, the total of the values of the plots included in the plan exceeds the total of values of the original plots each of such plots being estimated in the manner provided in clause (f) of sub-rule (1), then the amount of such excess shall be deducted in arriving at the costs of the plan, as defined in sub-rule (1).

51. Calculation of increment.—For the purposes of this Act, the increment shall be deemed to be the amount by which on the date of the declaration of intention to make a plan, the market value of a plot included in the plan estimated on the assumption that the scheme has been completed would exceed on the same date the market value of the same plot estimated without reference to improvements contemplated in the plan :

Provided that in estimating such values, the value of buildings or other works erected or in the course of erection on such plot shall not be taken into consideration.

52. Contribution towards the costs of plan.—(1) The costs of the plan shall be met wholly or in part by a contribution to be levied by the Planning Authority on each plot included in the Detailed Development Plan calculated in proportion to the increment which is estimated to accrue in respect of such plots by the Planning Authority provided that—

- (a) no such contribution shall exceed one-third of the increment estimated by the Planning Authority to accrue in respect of such plot ;
 - (b) Where a plot is subject to a mortgage with possession or to a lease, the Planning Authority shall determine in what proportion the mortgagee or lessee on the one hand and the mortgager or lessor on the other hand, shall pay such contribution ;
 - (c) no such contribution shall be levied on a plot used, allotted or reserved for a public purpose or purpose of the Planning Authority which is solely for the benefit of owners or residents within the area of the plan ; and
 - (d) the contribution levied on a plot used, allotted or reserved for a public purpose or purpose of the Planning Authority which is beneficial partly to the owners or residents within the area of the plan and partly to the general public shall be calculated in proportion to the benefit estimated to accrue to the general public from such use, allotment or reservation.
- (2) The owner of each plot included in the Detailed Development Plan shall be primarily liable for the payment of the contribution leviable in respect of such plot.

53. Transfer of right from original to reconstituted plot or extinction of such right.—Any right in an original plot which in the opinion of the Planning Authority incapable of being transferred wholly or in part, without prejudice to the making of a Detailed Development Plan to a reconstituted plot shall be so transferred and any right in an original plot which in the opinion of the Planning Authority is not capable of being so transferred shall be extinguished :

Provided that an agricultural lease shall not be transferred from an original plot to a reconstituted plot without consent of all the parties to such lease.

54. Compensation in respect of property or right injuriously affected by plan.—(1) The owner of any property or right which is injuriously affected by the making of a Detailed Development Plan shall, if he makes a claim before the Planning Authority within the prescribed time, be entitled to obtain compensation in respect thereof from the Planning Authority or from any person benefited or partly from the Planning Authority and partly from such person as the Planning Authority may in each case determine.

(2) Detailed Development Plan for redistribution or alteration of boundaries or lands or reconstitution of plots or sites in the planning area which may be made by the owner or owners concerned or by the Planning Authority in conformity with the Interim Development Plan/ Comprehensive Development Plan shall be submitted to an arbitrator with necessary maps at any time.

(3) Any person whose property is injuriously affected by any refusal to grant the permission or by making of the plan shall if he wants to make a claim submit such claim within 25 months of the date of declaration of the Detailed Development Plan or within such period as the Government may order otherwise. And the compensation shall be as in the schedule prescribed in the Pondicherry Town and Country Planning (Amendment Act) 1971. (See section 51 of the Act).

55. Exclusion or limitation of compensation in certain cases.—(1) No compensation shall be payable in respect of any property or private right of any sort which is alleged to be injuriously affected by reasons of any provisions contained in the Detailed Development Plan, if any other law for the time being in force applicable to the area for which such plan is made, no compensation is payable for such injurious affection.

(2) Property or a private right of any sort shall not be deemed to be injuriously affected by reason of any provision inserted in a Detailed Development Plan, which, with a view to securing the amenity of the area included in such plan or any part thereof, imposes any conditions and restrictions in regard to any of the matters specified in clause (n) of sub-section (2) of section 28.

56. Provision for cases in which amount payable to owner exceeds amount due from him.—If the owner of an original plot is not provided with a plot in the Detailed Development Plan or if the contribution to be levied from him is less than the total amount payable to him under any of the provisions of this Act, the net amount of his loss shall be payable to him by the Planning Authority in cash or in such other way as may be agreed upon by the parties.

57. Provisions for cases in which value of developed plot is less than the amount payable by owner.—(1) If, from any cause, the total amount, which would be due to the Planning Authority under the provisions of this Act from the owner of a plot to be included in the Detailed Development Plan exceeds the value of such plot estimated on the assumption that the Detailed Development Plan has been completed, the Planning Authority shall direct the owner of such plot to make payment to the Planning Authority of the amount of such excess.

(2) If such owner fails to make such payment within the prescribed period, the Planning Authority shall acquire the original plot of such defaulter and apportion the compensation among the owner and other persons interested in the plot on payment by the Planning Authority of the value of such plot and thereupon the plot included in the Detailed Development Plan shall vest absolutely in the Planning Authority free from all encumbrances, but subject to the provisions of this Act.

Provided that the payment made by the Planning Authority on account of the value of the original plot shall not be included in the costs of the scheme.

58. Payment by adjustment of account.—All payments due to be made to any person by the Planning Authority under this Act shall as far as possible be made by adjustment in such person's account with the Planning Authority in respect of the plot concerned or of any other plot in which he has an interest and failing such adjustment shall be paid in cash or in such other way as may be agreed upon by the parties.

59. Payment of net amount due to Planning Authority.—(1) The net amount payable under the provisions of this Act by the owner of a plot included in the Detailed Development Plan may, at the option of the contributor, be paid in lump sum or annual instalments not exceeding ten. If the owner elects to pay the amount by instalments, interest at four and a half per cent per annum shall be charged on the net amount payable. If the owner of a plot fails to so elect on or before the date specified in a notice issued to him, he shall be deemed to have elected to pay the contribution by instalments and the interest on the contribution shall be calculated from the date specified in the notice, being the date before which he was required to make an election as aforesaid.

(2) Where two or more plots included in the Detailed Development Plan are in the same ownership, the net amount payable by such owner under the provisions of this Act shall be distributed over his several plots in proportion to the increment which is estimated to accrue in respect of each plot, unless the owner and Planning Authority agree to a different method of distribution.

60. Planning Authority to make agreement.—(1) The Planning Authority may make any agreement with any person or body in furtherance of carrying out of the plan or any matter in connection therewith provided that such agreement is not inconsistent with the Detailed Development Plan.

(2) The Planning Authority may at the request of any group of persons registered or deemed to be registered as a Co-operative Building Society for the purpose of developing a Co-operative Building Scheme afford such facilities as are possible for the acquisition of land either by such society or on its behalf and enter into any agreement with such society for the development of such land in accordance with the provisions of the plan.

(3) The Planning Authority may, if it thinks fit, in any particular case and subject to such conditions as it may impose dispense with or modify with the approval of the Senior Town Planner any of the requirements of the plan other than requirements made obligatory by any law:

Provided that it is satisfied that there are circumstances warranting such dispensation or modification and that the interest of the plan will not be prejudicially affected thereby and its decision shall be final.

61. Particulars for layout plan.—(1) Every person who applies for permission for subdivision, reconstitution or improvement of plots shall submit an application with the particulars and documents as stated under rule 43.

(2) The period within which a Planning Authority may sanction or refuse to sanction a layout submitted to it shall be six months from the date of its receipt by the Planning Authority.

62. Disposal of applications.—(1) Within 6 months of the receipt of the application along with all relevant informations, filed according to these rules, the Planning Authority must communicate to the developer the manner in which his application has been treated by the Planning Authority.

(2) The Planning Authority may ask the developer to furnish some more information which if deemed essential before approval of the plan, but such information shall be demanded within 90 days of the receipt of the application under these rules.

(3) In case further details of information are asked for from the developer with respect to his plan, a further period of ninety days from the receipt of further information under this sub-rule shall be allowed to the Planning Authority to communicate to the developer the final decision of the Planning Authority on his application.

(4) Should the Planning Authority neglect/omit for three months after the receipt of the application for permission for subdivision, reconstitution or improvement of plots along with the all relevant information and plans as prescribed by these rules, or after the receipt of some more information or further details of information required by the Planning Authority under sub-rules 2 and 3 shall be deemed to have sanctioned the proposed application and the plan for subdivision, reconstitution or improvement of plots.

63. Withdrawal of applications.—(1) A developer may withdraw his application for subdivision, reconstitution or improvement of plots together with all documents filed in accordance with these rules, within fifteen days of date of its submission giving one or both the following reasons:

(i) the plan needs to be further modified or some more information is to be included in the applications ; and

(ii) that the applicant has changed his mind and does not intend to undertake the proposed scheme of subdivision, reconstitution or improvement of plots.

(2) In every such case the withdrawal shall only be effected by making a written application for withdrawal. The fees and other deposits made in this respect will be refunded to the applicant in full :

Provided that where any application for withdrawal made after fifteen days of its submission no fees shall be refunded :

Provided further that no fresh fees shall be charged in case where an application for subdivision or reconstitution or improvement of plots re-submitted within thirty days of the date of withdrawal if the fees have not been refunded on its first withdrawal.

(3) Where withdrawal is made at any time after the expiry of thirty days from the date of its submission, fresh fees shall be charged every time the fresh application is submitted.

64. Obligation to improve the site.—The applicant shall realise only 50 % of the amount from any person to whom he sells the plot once an interim sanction is accorded subject to certain improvements on site as specified by the Planning Authority. A final approval will be accorded once the improvements as required are carried out to the satisfaction of the Planning Authority and the applicant shall thereafter realise the rest of the amount.

65. Form of registration of application and particulars therein.—The registration of application for permission of development shall be made in Form IV.

6. Appeals.—(1) Appeals that are to be filed under this Act shall be in Form V appended to these rules and shall also be accompanied by the original or a certified copy of the order appealed against.

(2) The appeal should be filed within one month of communication of the order to the party concerned.

(3) Every appeal shall—

- (a) specify the name and address of the applicant and also the name and addresses of the respondent, if any ;
- (b) state by whom the order appealed against was made ;
- (c) set forth concisely and under distinct heads the grounds of objections to the order appealed against with a memorandum of evidence ;
- (d) state precisely the relief which the appellant claims ; and
- (e) give the date of the order appealed against.

(4) The appeal shall be accompanied by a receipt for payment of fees or chalan, as the case may be, and the said fees to be paid for the appeal shall be as prescribed from time to time.

57. The manner in which acquisition notice is to be served and claim of compensation to be made.—(1) The form of notice to be served under section 40/section 46 of the Act shall be in Form VI.

(2) The procedure to be followed for assessment of compensation shall be as laid down in Pondicherry Town and Country Planning Act, 1969 (Amendment Act 1971).

(3) When an order in appeal under section 38 refusing to grant permission or granting permission subject to conditions relates to the developments as envisaged under section 41, or when permission is revoked or modified under section 42 (1) the applicant may claim for compensation to the Planning Authority within a period of three months in Form VII.

(4) The Planning Authority after receiving the report from the Senior Town Planner assess the compensation. If the owner does not accept the compensation, he may within a period of one month refer the matter to adjudication to Court as required under section 41 (5)/section 42 (3).

68. Levy of development charge and exemption from it.—(1) The development charge shall be leviable on any person who undertakes or carries out any development or institutes or changes any use and the Planning Authority may levy a charge not exceeding 1/3 of the estimated increase in the value of land or building as prescribed from time to time.

(2) No development charge shall be levied on development or institution or any change of use of land in the following cases.

- (a) any land vested in or under the control or possession of Central, State or Local Government ;
- (b) any land allotted or reserved for a public purpose or purpose of the Planning Authority.

(3) The development charge shall be levied on any land allotted or reserved for a public purpose or purposes of Planning Authority beneficial partly to the owner and partly to the public and it shall be calculated in proportion to the benefit estimated to accrue to the public of such use.

69. Application for assessment.—The application for assessment of development charge shall be made to the Planning Authority in Form VIII.

70. Application/Appeal under section 44 (2).—Any person aggrieved by a notice issued under section 44 (1), within a period of 30 days shall apply for permission as required under section 41 (2) or appeal to the Board in Form IX.

71. Claim of compensation under section 46.—Any person who has suffered damage in consequence of or carried out development works in compliance with the notice issued by the Planning Authority under section 46 shall claim compensation from Planning Authority within a period of 90 days in the manner prescribed in Form X.

72. Disposal of land.—Land acquired under section 49 for execution of any development plan shall be disposed off to any person or body as required under section 52 in the manner prescribed below :—

(1) Land shall be subdivided into residential, commercial, industrial, public and semi public, sites or plots.

(2) Plots for residential purposes shall be sold to person to whom they are allotted through the Planning Authority or any Committee constituted for the purpose and the rules of allotment shall be as prescribed in the Pondicherry Land Acquisition and Development Scheme Rules, 1969 which shall be modified from time to time. The size of such residential plot shall not ordinarily exceed 500 sq.metres.

(3) In case of State Government, Local Authority or Central Government or any public agency the sites for residential, commercial or industrial purposes shall be disposed on outright sale without development or as developed sites.

(4) The plots for commercial, commercial-cum-residential and industrial purposes shall be sold by public auctioneer or by inviting open tenders to the highest bidder. In respect of other housing plots the Planning Authority may charge such price as it considers appropriate.

(5) "Development" for the above purpose may comprise some or all the following items of work as may be necessary.

- (i) Clearing, cutting, filling, levelling and landscaping the site including horticultural operations and the provisions of such services such as roads, lanes, paths, drainage, water supply, sewerage, electricity and street lighting; and
- (ii) bringing water supply and electricity from the nearest possible supply points, constructing approach road and providing out fall drains and sewers where necessary. If however, these services benefit adjoining areas these areas must share the cost of these services.

(6) The Planning Authority amongst other things shall utilise any profit gained by sale of land for commercial, etc., proposes and to persons in the higher income groups for the purpose of reducing the price of land to be utilised for public housing and to be sold to persons and co-operatives in the Lower income groups.

73. Maintenance of accounts.—(1) Every Planning Authority shall maintain in prescribed Form XIV an account of its transactions in two sections, namely, 'Ordinary' and 'Capital' under the head "Planning Authority Fund".

(2) A summary of the Planning Authority Fund account for any year shall be submitted to the Government through the Senior Town Planner not later than the 1st June of the year following, and a copy thereof shall be sent to the Local Audit Circle of jurisdiction.

- (viii) Recoveries of the expenses of enforcement under the Act.

(5) The surplus of receipts over expenditure, if any, in the ordinary section of the account at the end of a year shall be shown as a balance under the ordinary account, appropriation being made to the capital account whenever circumstances require such appropriation.

74. Budget.—The Budget of the Planning Authority shall be prepared in prescribed Form XV. The Budget so prepared for any financial year shall be submitted to the State Government in the month of January preceding the commencement of the said financial year. Six copies of the budget shall be prepared out of which three copies shall be sent to the State Government.

75. Accounts and Audit.—(1) In respect of the items included under the receipt and expenditure account the Planning Authority shall maintain two ledgers one in respect of receipts and another in respect of expenditure.

(2) Accounts of the Planning Authority shall from time to time and once in every year at the least be audited by the Accountant-General and also by such other agency, if any, as may be appointed by Government.

(3) The Auditor or auditors shall, for the purposes of their office, have access to all the accounts and other records of the Planning Authority.

(4) The Auditor, shall, within three months after the completion of audit forward a copy of the audit report to the Planning Authority, the Senior Town Planner and State Government.

76. Production of documents and attendance of persons concerned, etc.—(1) the auditor may—

- (a) require in writing the production of such vouchers, statements, returns, correspondence, notes or other documents in relation to the accounts as he may think fit ;
- (b) require in writing any salaried servant of the Planning Authority accountable for, or having the custody or control of such vouchers, statements, returns, correspondence, notes or other documents or of any property of the Planning Authority or any person having directly or indirectly by himself or his partner any share or interest in any contract with or under the Planning Authority to appear in person before him at the office of Planning Authority and answer any question.

(c) in the event of an explanation being required from the Chairman or other members of the Planning Authority in writing invite such person to meet him at the office of the Planning Authority and shall in writing specify the point on which his explanation is required.

(2) The auditor may, in any requisition or invitation made under sub-rule (1) fix a reasonable period, not being less than three days within which the said requisition or invitation shall be complied with.

(3) The auditor shall give to the Planning Authority not less than two weeks' notice in writing of the date on which he proposes to commence the audit :

Provided that, notwithstanding anything contained in this sub-rule, the auditor may, for special reasons which shall be recorded in writing, give shorter notice than two weeks or commence a special or detailed audit on the authority of the Government without giving notice.

77. Contents of Audit Report.—The Auditor shall include in his report a statement of—

- (a) every expenditure which appears to him to be contrary to law ;
- (b) the amount of any deficiency or loss which appears to have been caused by the gross negligence or misconduct of any person ;
- (c) the amount of any sum received which ought to have been but is not brought into account by any person ; and
- (d) any material impropriety or irregularity which may observe in the accounts other than those mentioned in clauses (a), (b) and (c).

78. Procedure to be adopted after report of the Auditor under Rule 77.—(1) On receipt of a report under Rule 77, the Member-Secretary of the Planning Authority shall remedy any defects or irregularities which may have been pointed out in the report, and shall, within two months of the receipt of the report place the report, together with a statement of action taken or proposed to be taken thereon and an explanation in regard thereto before a meeting of the Planning Authority. He shall also, within three

79. Government to surcharge or charge illegal payments or loss caused by gross negligence or misconduct.—(1) The Government may, after considering the recommendation of the Accountant-General and after taking the explanation of the person concerned, or making such further enquiry, as Government may consider necessary disallow any item which appears to Government to be contrary to law and surcharge the same on the person making, or authorising the making of the illegal expenditure; and may charge against any person responsible therefor the amount of any deficiency or loss caused by the negligence or misconduct of that person, or any sum received which ought to have been but is not brought into account by that person shall, in every such case, certify the amount due from such person.

(2) The Government shall intimate in writing the reasons for the decision in respect of every surcharge or charge and shall send by registered post a copy thereof to the person against whom it is made.

(3) If a person to whom a copy of the Government's decision is sent under sub-rule (2) refuses to take delivery thereof the person concerned shall be deemed to have duly received it on the day on which it was refused.

80. Penalty for disobeying requisition under Rule 76.—Any person who wilfully neglects or refuses to comply with any requisition lawfully made upon him under clause (a), (b) or (c) of sub-rule (1) of Rule 82 shall be punished with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees:

Provided that no proceedings under this rule shall be instituted except with the written sanction of the Government:

Provided further that before giving such sanction the Government shall call upon the person against whom the proceedings are to be instituted to show cause why the sanction should not be given.

81. Administration report.—The Annual Administration Report of the Planning Authority along with the Balance Sheet in prescribed Form XVI shall be sent to the Government on or before the 30th June of the year succeeding the year in respect of which the report is made.

82. Fees, etc., to be charged is to be notified.—All fees, development charges, levies, etc., envisaged under the Act and its rules and regulations shall be specified separately from time to time and published in the Official Gazette.

(By Order of the Lieutenant-Governor)

C. A. BALARAMASOUNARIN,
Under Secretary to Government.

months of the receipt of the report, send to the Accountant-General, intimation of his having remedied the defects or irregularities, if any, pointed out in the report, or shall, within the said period, supply the Accountant-General, any further explanation in regard to such defects or irregularities as the Planning Authority may wish to give.

(2) On receipt of such intimation or explanation the Accountant-General may, in respect of all or any of the matters discussed in the report—

(a) accept the intimation or explanation given by the Secretary of the Planning Authority and withdraw the objection, or

(b) direct that the matter be re-investigated at the next audit or at any earlier date, or

(c) hold that the defects or irregularities pointed out in the report or any of them have not been removed or remedied.

(3) The Accountant-General, shall send a report of his decision to the Member-Secretary of the Planning Authority within one month of the date of the receipt by him of the intimation or the explanation of the Member-Secretary of the Planning Authority referred to in Rule 78 or in the event of the Member-Secretary of the Planning Authority failing to give such intimation or explanation, on the expiry of the period of three months mentioned in the said rule and shall forward a copy of such report to the Member-Secretary, Planning Authority. If the Accountant-General holds that any defects or irregularities have not been removed or remedied he shall state in the report, whether, in his opinion the defects or irregularities can be regularised and if so, by what method, and if they do not admit of being regularised, whether they can be condoned, and if so, by what authority. He shall also state whether the amounts to which the defects or irregularities relate should, in his opinion, be surcharged or charged.

(4) The Planning Authority concerned shall include in its next administration report such portions of the report under sub-rule (1) as deal with defects and irregularities falling under clause (c) of sub-rule (2), together with the explanation thereof, if any, given under rule 78 and the final report of the Accountant-General thereon under sub-rule (2). Such report of defects and irregularities and explanation shall be open to the inspection of the public at the office of the Planning Authority for a period of one month from the date of their receipt.

(5) Nothing in this rule shall preclude the Accountant-General, at any time from bringing to the notice of the Government for such action as the Government may consider necessary, any information which appears to Government to support a presumption of criminal misappropriation or fraud or which in Government opinion deserves special attention or immediate investigation.
